You'll Need A Good Warm COAT

Select it now. Chilly isn't it?

I should say so. I just bought the most stylish warm coat I've ever seen.

Isn't that odd, I was just going to look for one. I've been shivering in this light spring suit.

How is it made, and where did you get it?

It's made of Java brown wool velour, has raglan sleeves and a large collar edged with Hudson seal, made so it can be worn open or fastened snugly around the throat. The entire coat hangs loose from the shoulders, but is belted from the side seams to the front, its a perfect beauty and they have so many other pretty styles that I hardly knew which one to choose, and oh, yes, I bought it at THE PEOPLES WAREHOUSE.

How are the prices?

Oh, very reasonable, almost any price you want to pay from $9.95 up to $60.00.

Well, I certainly ought to find something I like and I'm going to try right now. Goodbye.

The above is a conversation overheard only yesterday and now we have two more satisfied customers. You are invited to join the list of those who find this the place where it "pays to trade."

W.C.T.U. COUNTY PRESIDENTS GIVE THEIR REPORTS

HEADS OF UNIONS SUM UP WORKING OF DRY LAW IN HOME COMMUNITIES.

National President Sends Greeting to State Convention Yesterday Afternoon—Oregon Organization Complimented on Fine Work.

Yesterday afternoon's session of the W. C. T. U. convention in this city was taken up with reports from the various county presidents. "Victorious yesterday and confident tomorrow" the reports were called and the title reflected the spirit of the communications.

The reports were limited to six minutes each, but in that short time the heads of the county unions managed to sum up the workings of the prohibition law in their home communities and to give a brief summary of the work which the local unions were doing toward securing the enforcement and protection of the law.

Mrs. Minnie E. Hyde, speaking for the Columbia county union, declared there is very little bootlegging in that county, due to the cooperation of a sheriff who had been elected by the dry workers.

Mrs. Elizabeth Robinson claimed for Linn county the distinction of having the cleanest set of public officials of any county in the state. From lowest to highest, she said, not one was a user of tobacco.

Mrs. D. E. Baker of Malheur county reported that the W. C. T. U. of that county had been holding meetings at which attorneys, judges and other authorities on the laws had been held in Polk county under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Blanche Paul reported, and had resulted very successfully. The union of that county has also been doing much social service work, she reported.

Mrs. Isabel Youngstrom reported for Jefferson county, the baby county of the state, that the union there, though new, had done effective work. Auto excursions have been made to various communities and meetings held, she stated, for the purpose of discussing the measures on the ballot.

Mrs. Mary B. Campbell reported that Lane county has the best district attorney in the state and that the law has been effectively enforced there. She referred to the W. C. T. U. as the "mother of the dry voters of Oregon."

Mrs. Mattie Slesch, president of the Multnomah union and a candidate for the legislature, declared that when the door shut on the saloons it opened up vast opportunities for women and she stated that the women of her county have been busy trying to enter these doors. They have been co-operating with other organizations and have been studying future legislative action.

Rev. Edith Minchin declared that in Yamhill county the W. C. T. U. is more and more becoming the social center of the community and has been providing good, wholesome entertainment for the young people.

Mrs. Lydia Fox reported that Wasco county has had no jailer since March because they have had no prisoners. She stated that during the first six months of the year 50 gallons of liquor had been shipped into the county as against 13,650 gallons during the first six months of 1915.

Mrs. Para Thornton of Union county reported that a number of drug stores in that county had refused to sell alcohol in any form or for any purpose. Barley has brought the highest price in years, she said, and former wets have been converted by the success of prohibition.

Mrs. J. C. Woodworth, Umatilla county president, pointed to Pendleton as proof of prohibition prosperity. Mrs. McDonald declared that Front street in Medford, formerly the home of saloons, was now a clean street with some of the best business houses in the city. Mrs. Mary B. Starr declared that in Benton county arrests had decreased during the past year at the ratio of 17 to 1. And other county presidents made similar optimistic reports.

Message from National President. During the afternoon a message from Mrs. Anna A. Gordon of Evansville, Ill., national president, was read. She complimented the Oregon organization on its splendid work and urged that it do its part in securing from congress a referendum on a national constitutional prohibition. She stated that December 10 would national constitutional prohibition. tion Rally Day" in Washington, D. C. and that many "White Ribboners" would be at the capital on that day. She also predicted that Nov. 7 would write further victories for prohibition through the nation emwtastacmfw throughout the nation.
